DUKE IS LAID TO REST

Impressive Services Held In Church of St. Andrew.

GRIEF OF THE WIDOW

Grand Duchess Elizabeth and Other Relatives, According to An
Custom, Kiss For the Last Time Departed One.

Moscow, Feb. 24.—Services over the remains of late Grand Duke Sergius were held at St. Andrew's church. The scene within the church was pathetic. The guard of honor was drawn back as the imperial party entered to take its place before the bier. The coffin stood upon a great catafalque covered with a cloth of gold, on the four corners of which were imperial eagles, while below, on cushions, rested the orders of the dead man. The coffin was covered with cloth of silver trimmed with ermine. The mangled body lay in state dressed in full uniform, but a veil of fine lace was spread over the mutilated face. A gloved hand held an ikon of St. Nicholas.

The grand duke's widow, Grand Duchess Elizabeth, took her place at the foot of the coffin in front of a group of other members of the imperial family. She was arrayed in the deepest black save for the scarlet ribbon of the order of St. Anne, and was the center of all eyes. Throughout the ordeal she displayed the same fortitude she showed previously when she followed the dead coachman to the grave. The metropolitan and ten bishops conducted the service, which was accompanied by recitative chanting by the imperial choir. The air of the church was heavy with incense. When the metropolitan read the prayer for absolution all present knelt, many of those in the rear of the church prostrating themselves. The children of Grand Duke Paul, Demetri and Mary, sobbed aloud, but it was only when the time came to kiss the dead, according to the custom of the orthodox faith, that Grand Duchess Elizabeth almost broke down. Her tall, slight figure shook and swayed, and she was about to fall when Grand Duke Constantine gave her support. She kissed the uniform on the left breast thrice. When this touching ordeal was over the lid was placed on the coffin and borne on the shoulders of the grand dukes and aides de camp attached to Grand Duke Sergius' household was carried in silent procession preceded by priests in golden vestments to the church within the monastery. There a brief service of consignment to the grave took place, after which the body was placed in a vault, where it will remain until removed to St. Petersburg.

Exactly at noon, as the ceremony concluded, Moscow's 500 bells began tolling, and the people who had gathered on the square gradually dispersed. The streets were quieter than usual.

MAY REMAIN.

Japanese Government Not Desirous of Having Russians Returned.

San Francisco, Feb. 24.—The Examiner says three officers of Russian cruiser Lena who broke their parole here and returned to Russia in all probability will be allowed to remain there. The Japanese consul at this city is accredited with the statement that his government is not desirous of having the officers compelled to return here. This will relieve the United States government of the necessity of demanding their return, which would have to be done should Japan make the request.

VIOLENT ACTS.

Strike Situation at Warsaw Is Becoming Quite Serious.

Warsaw, Feb. 24.—The strikers are resorting to violence. They have destroyed the great switchboard station outside the city and cut a number of telegraph wires. The employees of the Warsaw-Kiava section of the Vistula railroad have struck, cutting off the last direct line of communication with Germany. Only very circuitous routes are now open.

Last Testimony Heard.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The last of the testimony in the interest of Judge Swayne in the impeachment proceedings against him was Thursday presented to the senate. Much of the time was spent in argument relating to the admissibility of testimony. The senate also adopted an order granting each side five hours in the closing argument.

Passed Without Amendment.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Without a dollar being added or subtracted, the river and harbor appropriation bill passed the house Thursday after the session had run well into the evening. The total amount carried by the bill is $17,234,657.

Special Session Called.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The president issued a proclamation convening the senate in special session at 12 o'clock noon, on March 4, next, to receive such communications as may be made by the executive.

Rumors of Paying Oil.

Waco, Feb. 24.—Persistent rumors of paying oil come from South Bosque, ten miles west. It is said to be of high grade has been found in another well.

SIMPLON TUNNEL DONE

Gigantic Undertaking Connects Italy and Switzerland.

PIERCES THE ALPS.

Took Nearly Ten Years to Complete
the Work, Cost Fifteen Million Dollars and Financed by the Two Nations.

Condo, Switzerland, Feb. 24.—The piercing of the Simplon tunnel through the Alps was completed at 7:20 o'clock Friday morning. The work was commenced in 1895. The meeting of the two boring parties (Swiss and Italian) was signaled throughout Switzerland and Italy by the ringing of church bells and saluting with cannon.

The piercing of the Simplon is regarded as being one of the greatest engineering achievements of the age. Many difficulties have been encountered and overcome. The length of the tunnel from Briga in Switzerland to Iselle, on the Italian side of the mountain, is about twelve miles. Work was begun nearly ten years ago, and according to the contract the tunnel must be ready for traffic May 15 next. Swiss and Italian governments jointly financed the undertaking, share and share alike, at a cost of $15,000,000. Soon the boring will be thoroughly completed and the track laid. A smaller tunnel is to be constructed parallel to the large one, which will be increased in size so as to permit traffic both ways at the same time.

Many unexpected obstacles have been encountered, the most serious being hot springs, which threatened to wreck the whole enterprise, the temperature, which rose at one time to 131 degrees Fahrenheit, making continuance of work impossible until the engineers found means of cooling the atmosphere.

The work of preparing the tunnel for permanent use will be pushed as rapidly as possible, and it is hoped to inaugurate the tunnel about March 20.

WEALTH OF HUNTINGTON.

It is the Principal Backer of New Railroad Enterprise.

San Francisco, Feb. 24.—The Call says the Western Pacific railroad project is backed by the Huntington millions and not by the gold of the Goulds, as has been generally suspected by the public since the big railroad undertaking began definite shape. From the coffers of Mrs. Collis P. Huntington, widow of the late western railroad magnate, is coming the bulk of the money used to carry out the plans of the new overland road between San Francisco and Salt Lake City. In the contributions she is making there are being added funds mainly from her nephew, Henry E. Huntington, and associates in several gigantic schemes. B. F. Yoakum, president of the Frisco system, and E. W. Hawley, who is prominently identified with a number of railroad enterprises. Huntington, Hawley and Yoakum are not only planning the road to Salt Lake City for the purpose of acquiring a special system from San Francisco to the Gulf of Mexico by way of the Denver gateway, but are making traffic arrangements with other roads with a view of getting connections at Denver or Salt Lake City for through passenger and freight business to Missouri river points and Chicago.

PRESIDENT THANKED.

Prompt Response in Paper Manufacturers' Matter Is Commended.

New York, Feb. 24.—The following resolution, presented by Conde Hamlin of the St. Paul Pioneer Press, was unanimously adopted by the American Newspaper Publishers' association at its convention here:

Resolved, That the American newspaper Publishers' association extends a grateful appreciation to President Roosevelt and the department of justice for the prompt response to the request of this association for investigation and legal proceedings against the combination of paper manufacturers, which proceedings are now pending in the United States circuit court for the district of Minnesota, and are being vigorously prosecuted.

DURING RECESS.

Senate Interstate Commerce Committee Wants to Sit Then.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The senate committee on interstate commerce agreed to report a resolution asking that the committee be authorized by the senate to sit during the recess of congress to take testimony for the purpose of preparing some measure for the regulation of railroad rates. A subcommittee, consisting of Senators Foraker, Kean and Carmack, met immediately and drafted the resolution. It provides for the full committee to meet immediately after adjournment of the present session or thereafter at the convenience of the committee, and to report to the next session.

He leaves a wife and two sons, Mr. Ed Crenshaw of Bryan and Mr. Henry Crenshaw of Fort Worth.

Mr. Ed Crenshaw left for his father's home yesterday immediately upon learning of his death, and full particulars regarding Mr. Crenshaw's life and his sudden and unexpected death were not obtainable yesterday, and will be given later.

AN OLD WAR HORSE IN TOWN.

Famous Old Scout and Trapper Here
For a Few Days.

There is in Bryan for a few days quite a distinguished old gentleman in the person of Capt. Wm. F. Drannan, a good likeness of whom we here present to our readers.

Capt. Drannan is a native of Tennessee, but he went West fifty seven years ago when he was only fifteen years of age and in after years became a famous scout and guide. He was one of General Fremont's most trusted guides and was loved by the great "Pathfinder" as his kin. He was also an intimate friend of Kit Carson, Gen. Crook, Gen. Wheaton and many other noted soldiers and frontiersmen.

The Captain has written a book entitled "Thirty-One Years on the Plains and Mountains," in which the principle events of his interesting life are described. Everybody should read the book.

Captain Drannan will remain in our city about ten days and will sell his book on our steets. The book is neatly printed and profusely illustrated and will make interesting reading.

The captain paid our sanctum a friendly visit yesterday and we found him to be an entertaining old gentleman, looking much younger than he really is, and an examination of his book shows it to well written and worthy of a place in any one's library.

Find the mark inside of hat-band, give us half the amount and put the other half in your pocket. Feb. 24th and 25th. Hunter & Chatham. 69

BRAZOS TOLL BRIDGE, TOO.

Follows the Batte Ferry Into the Column of Free Public Institutions
—A Good Day's Work.

The Brazos river toll bridge, known as the Pitt Bridge, will now become the property of Brazos county, and will be toll free to all goers and comers.

Such is the case according to the action of the Brazos River Bridge Co. at their meeting yesterday afternoon, when the proposition of the commissioners' court was accepted. The offer was to pay the bridge company $14,250, less 20 per cent; $2500 cash; balance to be paid in two notes due in one and two years from date, respectively, to bear 5 per cent interest.

The directors of the bridge company are authorized and empowered to meet with the commissioners court and close the transaction. This removes a great barrier to trade from Burleson county, and the Eagle expects to see results in due time.

The commissioners court and all parties active in this matter are to be congratulated. Judge Board has been active in the matter for a year past, and deserves commendation for that persistence in good works that usually sooner or later brings fruit.

The figures in the case are thus: 80 per cent of $14,250.00 is 11,400.00, the net cost of the bridge, to the county. $2500.00 paid cash leaves $8,900, to be paid in the county's notes, given at one and two years with 5 per cent interest.

When sending your little children to market, send them to my market. We take a pride in waiting on them. Phone 30 or 326. S. H. Franklin. 73

A WARNING.

The ladies of the M. I. C. of Bryan are bestirring themselves in the matter of having the game law enforced, for the protection of birds, and also an ordinance of the city of Bryan having a relation to this subject. The city has an ordinance against the use of the "nigger shooter," yet it is said that many boys in Bryan are armed with these unlawful and dangerous weapons, and are slaying birds with them. The ladies constituting the club named have resolved to see the law enforced, and ask the Eagle to give this public notice that they are going to inform on boys, white and black as well, who are thus violating the law. County Attorney M. Nagle has announced to them that he will prosecute violators of the game law to the full extent, and that punishment according to the law will be meted out to those proven to have violated it. The ladies inform the Eagle that mockingbirds, jaybirds and robins are being ruthlessly slain by the boys, and that in many cases the boys, when asked to desist, "talk back" and seem to have no fear of the law's penalties. They say they are going to make complaints, regardless of who the guilty ones are, and give parents this warning, that they may restrain the boys, and save themselves from paying fines for their children.

The ladies are right about it: The laws should be enforced.

Finding the students on guard, the intruders were taking leave, but a movement to cut them off from the outlet was resented and a fusillade of shots followed, both sides firing wild in the dark. The burglars fled. Three arrests were made.

Declared Not Guilty on the Charge of Alleged Boodling.

Butler, Mo., Feb. 24.—After being out one hour and thirty-four minutes the jury in the case of Charles Kratz, on trial for alleged boodling at St. Louis, was acquitted. His wife and mother were present in the courtroom. When the reading of the verdict was finished Kratz burst into tears and repeatedly exclaimed: "I am glad!" The two women threw their arms about his neck and sobbed out their congratulations. Many in the courtroom rushed forward and expressed their congratulations to Kratz, whose enfeebled condition scarcely permitted him to more than nod his head in recognition.

PENROSE'S PRESENT.

Infernal Machine Sent to the Senator
From Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Feb. 24.—Addressed to United States Senator Penrose, a small infernal machine was found done up in an innocent looking package in a private mail box in the hallway of a building at 1210 Market street Thursday.

SENATOR BOIES PENROSE.

A. J. Williams, a photographer, to whom the mail box belongs and who discovered the package, turned it over to Captain of Detectives Donoghay, who opened the box without exploding its contents. The box contained gunpowder and a liquid, supposed to be nitro-glycerine. On portions of the wrapper of the box were pasted clippings containing the names of different corporations. On another wrapper was the inscription: "President Roosevelt, we are not in any trust; time limited, inauguration." Captain Donoghay believes the infernal machine is undoubtedly the work of a crank. There is no clue to his identity.

SUTHERLAND DUBIOUS.

Does Not Believe Filipino Students Can Be Educated in South.

Knoxville, Tenn., Feb. 24.—William Alexander Sutherland, superintendent of education for Filipino students in this country, does not believe that Filipinos can be successfully educated in southern institutions of learning, owing to prejudice from student bodies. Superintendent Sutherland was here looking after six Filipinos who were students at the University of Tennessee. They were sent here at the request of former President Charles A. Dabney and are the only ones of about 150 now in this country who were sent to southern institutions. He said he found that the Filipinos at the local institution were not cordially received by the student body, but had been somewhat ostracized. He regretted the condition, especially because Tennessee was the home state of Hon. Luke E. Wright, governor general of the Philippines, a man who was greatly honored and respected by the Filipino people.

DECLINED TO INCREASE.

Bill Making Additional Advalorem Tax Rate Is Defeated.

Austin, Feb. 24.—After the most heated debate of the session the house Thursday, by 61 to 45, declined to force the committee on revenue and taxation to report Mr. Cranke's bill to increase the advalorem tax rate. During the debate there were some sharp things said in the way of criticisms, some of which Mr. Cobbs construed to be personal attacks upon him. He resented them in a speech of the scathing sort, following which there were disclaimers of any intent to reflect, etc., until Mr. Hill of Denton arose to suggest that the previous question be ordered upon "the Alphonse and Gaston business." and Mr. Blount of Anderson declared that the proceedings reminded him of two little boys who uniformly denied responsibility for "devilment." "they say they did not mean it, and that they did not say anything. Let's get to work," said he.

The debate occurred over a resolution introduced by Messrs. Cobbs, Fitzhugh and Cranke several days ago to require the committee on revenue and taxation to report the bill and declaring that it should be set as a special order.

Senate concluded bill prohibiting owners or managers of billiard halls and bowling alleys from permitting minors to enter such places and play any game therein.

Mr. Grinnam moved to reconsider the vote by which the senate rejected Mr. Terrell's substitute providing that the law shall not apply when the minor is accompanied by a parent or has written consent to enter such places. Lost on a tie vote.

Messrs. Hicks and Harper offered an amendment providing that the bill shall not apply to billiard halls or bowling alleys in social clubs, associations and clubs of like character. Adopted, and bill was passed.

DALLAS DELIGHTED.

Rejoices Over Half Million Dollar Trinity River Appropriation.

Dallas, Feb. 24.—There is a great joy at this city over the passing by the lower house of congress Thursday of the river and harbor bill without amendment. The enterprise of this city in offering, through the president of the Commercial club, $65,000 toward improving the upper part of the Trinity river, is believed to have largely contributed toward securing the $500,000 appropriation for that stream. This action of Dallas is believed here will have sufficient influence with the senate to let the appropriation stand in the bill on final passage.

BANKER INDICTED.

Action of This Kind Taken Against
Frank D. Glover of San Marcos.

Austin, Feb. 24.—A sensational turn was taken in the Kirby-Moore bribery case Friday in Judge Calhoun's court by the indictment of Frank D. Glover, a San Marcos banker. It is alleged that Glover paid Moore $12,500 as a bribe in the matter of the suit against the Kirby Lumber company. First two indictments against Kirby were dismissed and two new ones presented. The first one is practically the same as the first original one, but the second makes above charge against Glover. It further alleges that Kirby did promise to reward Glover and alleges that Kirby was not present when said affair was committed. County Attorney Brady contended that there was no bribery charged against Glover, but the court ruled that the indictment charged Glover with bribery and he ordered the clerk of the court to issue a warrant for the arrest of Glover. Glover soon appeared in court and was recognized in the sum of $2500, with V. O. Weed and John H. Houston and Joseph Nalle as sureties. The cases then went over until Saturday morning, as the defendants could not be tried until two days after the return of the new indictments.

Cotton Belt Sale Favored.

RAPE IN MISSISSIPPI.

Negro Charged With the Terrible Crime
Was Captured.

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 24.—While Miss Mamie Marsh was going home from the state house Thursday she was seized by a negro and dragged into the yard of a residence. The fiend beat her into insensibility and raped the young lady. Governor Vardaman appealed to the excited people to let the law, should the negro be caught, take its course, making an impassioned speech.

On Friday the excitement was continued by the burning of a negro church.

A negro with blood on his clothing was arrested and taken to the city hall, which the local militia surrounded.

DECISION UPHELD.

Damages Against the Republic, However, Have Been Set Aside.

Port au Prince, Hayti, Feb. 24.—The court of appeals in the case of the appeal of the National Bank of Hayti for reversal of judgment in the matter of fraudulent bonds issued in 1902 upholds the decision of the lower court, but annuls damages against the republic. The case grew out of the act of the Haytian congress in 1902 authorizing the consolidation of the national debt in a bond issue of about $6,000,000 and additional $231,282 to be paid to the National Bank of Hayti for financing the deal. Before the transaction was completed the government of President Nord came into power. The bank officials were imprisoned a year ago on charges of bribery and conspiring with the secretary of the treasury in fraudulently issuing from $200,000 to $850,000 in bonds. Of the thirty-three persons accused, among who was ex-President Sam, thirteen were present at the trial, the others having fled. The court rendered judgment in default, condemning Sam to imprisonment for life at hard labor. Mme. Sam was sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment and several members of Sam's ministry and other high functionaries condemned to terms of imprisonment ranging from five to fifteen years.

The mob tried to rescue him. A policeman drew his sword, whereupon a student killed him and disappeared in the crowd.

Cossacks and infantry are guarding the telegraph lines of the Warsaw-St. Petersburg railroad, fearing strikers will cut off communication between the two cities. Mails from Warsaw to Lodz, a distance of sixty miles, are delivered by carts. Railroad strikers of Lodz who are coming here to attend a conference of strikers are obliged to travel by wagon road.
